Two-Month Term For Selling Liquor

ILLEGAL POSSESSION CHARGE WITH- DRAWN

Walter Nesbitt of Aurora was found guilty of selling liquor by Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe at Police Court on Tuesday, and was sentenced to jail for a term of two months, the beer and liquor ordered confiscated, and his premises declared a public place for one year. A further charge of illegal possession was withdrawn. Frank Moore of Toronto acted for accused.

"Your Worship, about 8.50 p.m. November 16, in company with Constable Myers, I proceeded to the home of the accused in the Town of Aurora," testified Constable Wallace. "Detective Martindale, Chief Dunham, and Constable Fleury were left in the police car. We proceeded to the rear door and knocked. The door was opened by accused and we asked him for some beer. We were admitted to the kitchen, and by conversation purchased two quarts of beer. I tendered a Bank of Canada $1 bill, marked and received 20c in change. About ten minutes later the other officers entered. The bill tendered was not recovered. Accused went to the back of the house and was gone only a few minutes. There were two other men in kitchen, one sitting to the table and the other in a rocking chair facing the stove." He added that accused appeared suspicious and had asked the two men in the kitchen if they knew these two men.

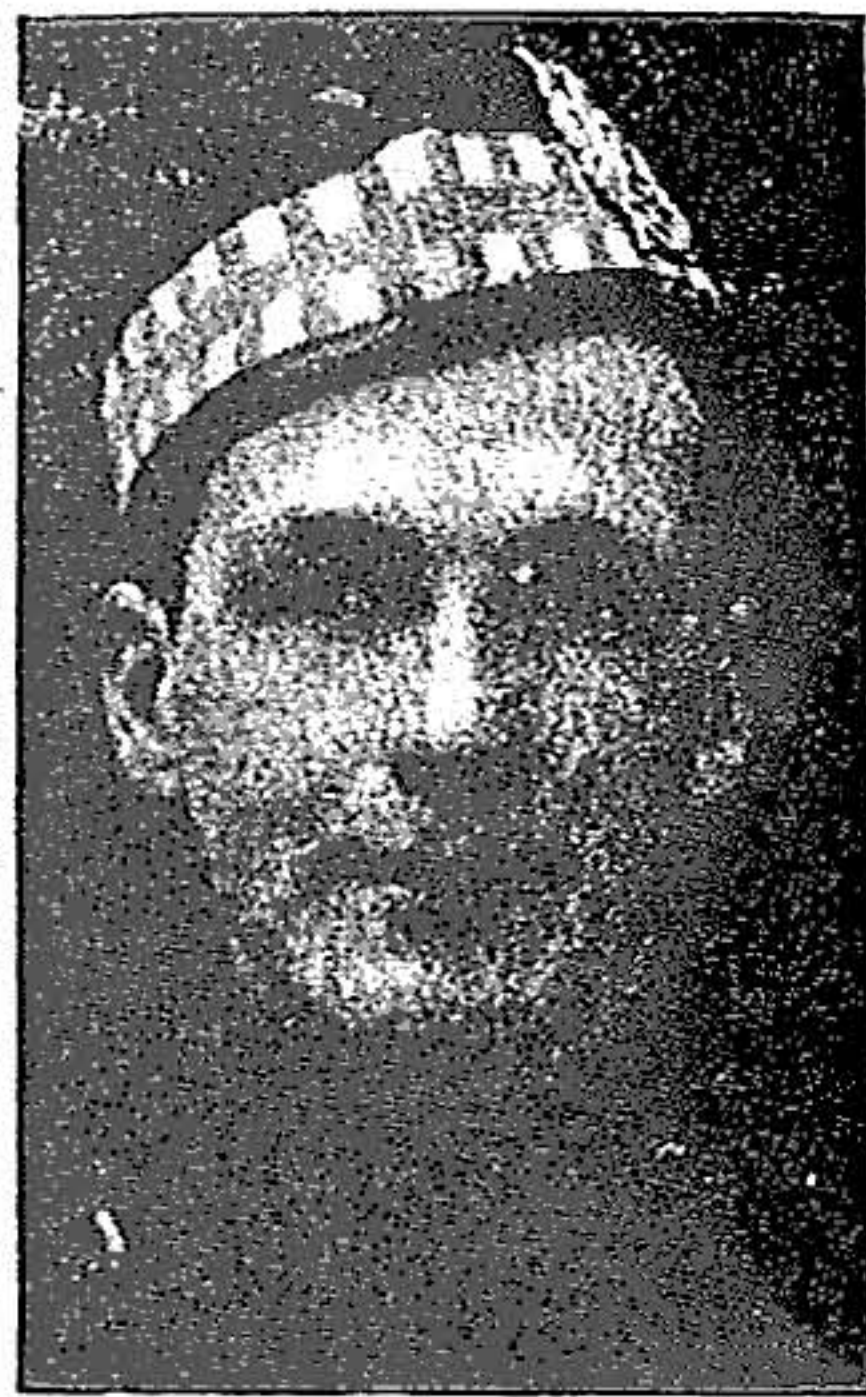

Constable William Myers corroborated this evidence and added that Constable Wallace had told accused that they had been to another premises first and a veteran had directed them there. Nesbitt said that he didn't know them, but would take a chance.

"Detective Martindale, Chief Dunham and myself had arranged to meet the other officers previously and on entering the house, Det. Martindale produced a search warrant," testified Constable Aubrey Fleury. "The two officers each had a bottle and a glass in front of them. William Trulove and Alvin Paddington were also in the kitchen. On searching the house, I found a part bottle of gin and a part bottle of rye. In the cellar I found three cases of White Ale, one case of Scotch ale, and on the ledge in the cellarway six quarts of ale. I searched one or two rooms for the dollar bill, but was unable to find it."

"I asked the two officers whom they paid for the beer and they pointed to Nesbitt," testified Detective Martindale. "I asked Nesbitt to turn out his pockets and the dollar bill was not found. We made a thorough search of the premises and found fifty-four quarts of beer and two bottles of liquor."

BUSINESS MEN ATTENTION

A special meeting of the Board of Trade is called for to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, in the council chamber. All business men are urged to attend as the Santa Claus parade, Christmas market and Friday afternoon markets will be discussed.

RED CROSS NEWS

The Red Cross society recently shipped to headquarters, the following splendid assortment of knitted goods:

1 cap robe, 5 turtle neck ins, 6 doz. pairs socks, 2 doz. and 7 helmets, 2 doz. plain mitts, 1 doz. two-way mitts, 4 seamen's scarves, 1 soldier's scarf, 8 sleeveless sweaters, 1 sailor's sweater.

BRIDGE CLUB ACTIVE IN WAR WORK

The Newmarket Girls' Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. Norman Macleod on Monday, Nov. 25, for the purpose of packing five ditty bags.

On a previous date the club met and packed four soldiers' boxes. These boxes and ditty bags contained, respectively: sweater, helmet, socks, gloves, cigarettes, chocolate bars, gum, jam, wash cloths, soap, shaving cream, tooth paste, tooth brushes, writing paper, envelopes, pencils, Christmas cakes, handkerchiefs, books, oxcubes, peanuts, powder, playing cards.

The girls are very grateful to the many town people who have made most generous donations to the club.

TWENTY BELOW MONDAY NIGHT

Twenty below was registered several places in town Monday night and early Tuesday morning, while the snowfall since the first of the week holds indications of the whitest Christmas for many a year. Toronto is still digging out, and traffic conditions are extremely bad.

ARENA TO OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT

If the weather holds out there will be public skating in the arena Friday night from 7.30 till 10.

ALUMNI DANCE ENJOYABLE EVENT

The annual dance of the Newmarket Alumni Society, held in the school auditorium Friday evening, was the usual gay event with the usual scarcity of ex-students. The officers of the Military Camp and their wives attended in goodly number and enjoyed the evening with the townsfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Collingwood, home from Peterboro for the occasion, won the prize for an ex-student coming the greatest distance, while Miss Lillian Daniels and Sergt. Usher won the lucky spot dance. Art West's orchestra provided the music.

SKIERS ATTENTION

The ski truck will leave from Geer & Byers, Botsford street, every Saturday and Sunday at 1.45 p.m. Tickets may be purchased, 7 return trips for $1.

RECEIVES INTERESTING SOUVENIR

Mrs. Percy Lloyd brought to our office this week, an interesting souvenir her husband, Percy Lloyd, had sent home from England. It was a thick piece of heavy corded silk, some three feet long, and an inch and a quarter in diameter.

These cords are attached to the parachute in the heavy delayed action bombs dropped by the Germans in their raids in the Old Land, and stop the weighty missile from going too far into the ground and become ineffective.

CHIMNEY FIRE; LITTLE DAMAGE

The fire brigade was called out in the cold early Tuesday night when a chimney at the James Nelson residence on Millard Ave. caught fire. The firemen were at almost an hour at the task.

AIRCRAFTSMAN WALTER GILROY, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilroy of town, recently arrived in Newfoundland, where he will drive a large Deisel snow plow to keep the airport open.

STANLEY BROCK MAKES GENEROUS DONATION

J. B. Bastedo, principal of the Newmarket high school, advised members of the board at a meeting on Friday, that fifty students of the middle and upper schools would complete their course by Easter, to enable them to be free to take jobs on farms or in war industries.

This was a heavy task for the teachers, and the curriculum had been adjusted so that nothing unnecessary would interfere with the regular school work. The students not taking war positions would carry on until the mid-summer holiday, taking their year's work more fully.

The principal also stated that the girls of the school were doing Red Cross work and the boys taking cadet drill.

Another government scheme which is being worked out is the training of high school volunteers over seventeen, in technical schools, allowing $7 a week living allowance, while these boys were learning crafts suitable for the war effort.

Other business was the refunding to the Red Cross the amount paid for the use of the auditorium for the recent dance, the granting of a similar privilege for January 17, the setting aside of the two rooms next to the ladies' and gents' wash-rooms for smoking, the order to purchase additional athletic equipment for the girls at a cost of $85, the cost to be met by turning in one less typewriter next year, and the acknowledgment of a section of adjustable book shelves from the Office Specialty.

A donation of $75 from a former student, Stanley Brock, was acknowledged, Mr. Bastedo having submitted to the donor a (Continued on Page 5, Col. 5)

THE LIONS' CHRISTMAS BASKETS NEED SOME FILLING

Only nineteen more days until Christmas Eve—the evening the Lions Club bring joy and gladness into many a Newmarket home. Homes where the kiddies are provided with the necessities of life, but where money is not plentiful enough to fill that row of tiny socks hung up for Santa Claus.

"Not needed this year," you say. Recall your own childhood days. Was there ever a year in our history that Santa Claus should be made more real to these children and to ourselves?

Yours is the privilege of helping in this worthy effort. A quarter, a dollar, a five or whatever you can spare. "Help the Lions Help the Kiddies" have a Merry Christmas.

HAS ARM SEVERELY IN- JURED WHEN STRUCK BY CAR

Charles Martin of Connaught Gardens sustained a compound fracture and bad lacerations to his left arm when struck by a car driven by Chris. Jones of Sharon, Tuesday night. The impact knocked both handles off the side of the Jones car.

The accident occurred between six and seven at night. The Martin car was frozen up and steaming, and it is thought that Mr. Martin walked around the car, and Jones, proceeding north on Prospect, was unable to see him.

WORKMEN LAID OFF FROM MILITARY CAMP

Some seventy workmen were laid off at the Military Camp on Saturday. It is rumored about town that with the New Year another extensive programme of building will be undertaken.

YORK MUSICAL FESTIVAL TO CARRY ON

At a meeting held in Aurora on Tuesday evening, the York Musical Festival committee were unanimous in their decision to carry on next year. A further meeting will be held in January, and members of the executive and others interested are asked to give the subject plenty of thought. Members will be notified of the meeting.

ONE YEAR TERM FAVOURD BY ELECTORS

Seven hundred and twenty-eight electors of the two thousand odd citizens entitled to vote, braved the snow and cold of Monday to vote for their choice of mayor, and to express their opinion on the one or two year term.

To Dr. Lowell W. Dales went the honour of being elected mayor of Newmarket, the doctor securing 384 votes to J. E. Nesbitt's 344, a majority of 40. Thus the man of action returns to municipal life after an absence of two years, one of which he has spent on the High School Board. During his seven years as reeve of this town, Dr. Dales was an energetic, tireless worker and should make a capable mayor.

The vote for the one or two year term was an emphatic no to the Provincial government's extended term idea, 251 voting for and 468 against.

The 1941 council is Dr. Dales, mayor; Fred A. Lundy, reeve; Joseph Vale, deputy-reeve; Arleigh Armstrong, Frank Bowser, William Dixon, Arthur Evans, A. V. Higginson and Joseph Spillet, councillors.

LONDON CAN TAKE IT

The following letter recently received by Capt. Aubrey Davis from a business firm in England, shows that London can really "take it," and that the spirit of the British people is far from broken.

Brook Street,
Syston Leicester,
October 18, 1940.

Mr. Aubrey Davis,
c/o Davis Leather Co. Ltd.,
Newmarket, Ontario.
Dear Mr. Davis:

Talking with my brother Mr. Tom Eatough, yesterday, I mentioned to him that your firm have been very generous in completing our contract of Madrid Calf by sending in to us the outstanding balance of fifty dozen in a slightly better selection, but at the same price as per our contract for the lower selection. We realize that probably you are not aware of this personally owing to your very important duties in connection with the war effort of your Government, but we feel nevertheless we should just like to drop you a note to say that we consider your action most honourable, especially as nobody can say that you should complete your contracts under present conditions, but we must admit that whilst it was a surprise to us to hear that we were going to have our contract completed, it was not really such a surprise when we came to think about it, as we realized the high business ideals that govern your actions at all times.

PAPER ONE DAY EARLIER

The Express-Herald will be published on Wednesday of next week. Will correspondents and others who have items for the paper kindly send the news into our office as early as possible.

OBJECTIVES OF OR- GANIZATION OUTLINED

The northern district meeting of the York County Home and School Council was held in the Newmarket high school auditorium Saturday afternoon, Nov. 30. Nine associations were represented, including delegates from both Mimico and Leaside.

Mr. H. A. Jackson brought greetings to the president of the provincial federation, Mrs. Silcox, Toronto, the guest speaker and the delegates.

He complimented the Home and School Associations on their work; expressed his appreciation of the organization and stated that he foresaw great benefits accruing in the future through the co-operation of the associations with the homes and the schools.

The chairman, Mrs. Sutton, spoke briefly on the purpose of the northern meeting.

It was planned to bring the associations more closely together, and to make each association more conscious of the part it must play and the responsibilities it must assume, with sincere purpose, in the home and school work.

The objectives of the Home and School Association is to make better citizens of all children through the full co-operation with the strongest forces of every day living, namely the home, the church and the school.

Citizenship should be very strongly stressed as the children of today are to be the men and women of tomorrow, and to them will fall the heavy task of reconstruction after this war.

The topic, "What Every Home and School Member Should Know," was handled in a splendid way by Mrs. Bainbridge, secretary of the Ontario Federation.

The aims of the association are mainly: 1. The welfare of the Child. 2. Co-operation—To link in common purpose the interests of all persons in all children. 3. To facilitate intelligent co-operation between parents and teachers and any body of persons interested in the child. 4. Progressive education as embodied in the Home and School Creed. 5. To establish study and discussion groups. (Parenthood is the greatest profession in the world and so often has the least training).

YORK COUNTY FED- ERAL ARRANGE SERIES OF MEETINGS

The York County Federation of Agriculture at its last directors' meeting, appointed a committee to arrange for a series of meetings to be held throughout York County and it has just been announced that these meetings will be held as follows:

Monday, Dec. 9 — Woodbridge
Orange Hall

Tuesday, Dec. 10 — Belhaven.
Community Hall

Wednesday, Dec. 11—Newmarket
Bugle Band Hall

Thursday, Dec. 12—Nobleton.
Community Hall

Friday, Dec. 13—Unionville,
Township Hall

The speakers are all very conversant with the aims, objects and set-up of the Federation of Agriculture and all are highly recommended. At Woodbridge, the speaker will be M. M. Robinson, producer director of the Canadian Food Distribution Council who is putting up a real fight for the producer. The Belhaven meeting will be addressed by Jas. Gifford of Peterborough County, President of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture.

On Wednesday, Russell T. Kelley of Hamilton, one of our most popular speakers for farmer gatherings, will speak at Newmarket and Thursday's meeting at Nobleton will be addressed by the secretary of the Ont. Federation of Agriculture, V. S. Milburn. The series will conclude at Unionville on Friday, with R. J. Scott, Belgrave, Pres. of the United Farmers' Co-Operative Assoc.

Owing to recent snowstorms, the meetings have been changed to 2 p.m. Standard Time to eliminate night driving. Everyone interested in the question of federating all the various farmer organizations under one head should plan to be on hand to take part in the discussion. President James Rennie of Stouffville, and Secretary E. F. Ramsay of Sharon, are contacting all organization executives, to insure full halls to greet the speakers and get acquainted with the proposed work of the Federation.

Santa Claus Parade Saturday, Dec. 14

SPECIAL CHRISTMAS MARKET FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20

The annual visit of Santa Claus to Newmarket—the eagerly awaited event by the children of this district—will be held on Saturday, December 14th, at 2 o'clock. There will be the usual bag of candies for the kiddies from Santa Claus, and other special features—one of these, it is hoped, is a parade of at least part of the trainees from the Military Camp, headed by the local bands.

The committee is endeavoring to make Saturday, December 14 a gala day for the district, so bring the kiddies in one and all and let them shake hands with their old friend, Santa.

Another event which annually brings a crowd to the Hub of North York—the Christmas market, will be held on Friday afternoon, December 20th, at 2 p.m., Standard Time. See next week's papers for extensive prize list and particulars.

The merchants of our town welcome you to their stores. Drop in and get warm and look over their complete stock of Christmas gifts.

BOYS WRITE HOME FROM OLD COUNTRY

Maida Barracks, Aldershot Hants, Nov. 2, 1940.

Dear Dad:

I am sorry I haven't answered your letter sooner, but I have had some bad news and it was quite a while before I could get things back to normal again.

Betty, the girl I was engaged to, has been killed by a German bomb. She was at home in Brighton, visiting her mother and father when it happened. It seemed she was walking into the town near their home when the warning whistle blew and she kept on walking instead of taking shelter. Well, a squadron of bombers, heading for France after bombing London, passed over Brighton and dropped their remaining bombs to lighten their load. One of them fell about 50 yards from Betty. She was killed instantly, her mother said, and for that I am glad.

It is horrible, Dad. I am not the only one who has lost someone he loves. The Jerry's are killing defenceless women and children in their bombing raids, and that is what will be their downfall, because no Englishman will stand by and see his loved ones dying without making an oath of vengeance, to get the rotten butchers who are responsible.

No one here knew about my coming marriage, and when I got the news, it was tough to take dad, but I'll never forget her, because she was so good and sweet. She was working to help us get a good start in life. It's all over now, but I can't forget that there is a time coming when I can get revenge on the dirty cowards who did it. I am a Bren-gunner now and I can kill a lot more than I could with a rifle, and you can be sure I'll get my quota and more.

Well, I hope everything is alright at home. I hear there is a new camp at Newmarket. Give my love to Peter and Mom, also Mrs. Perrin and Mr. and Mrs. Adams and family.

Please don't tell anyone about this dad, because I don't want anyone to feel sorry for me.

Well, I will say goodbye for now. So long and God bless you all.

Your son, David.

YORK COUNCIL

PARTLY NAMED

As a result of Monday's elections nearly half the members of the 1941 York County Council have already been returned. The Council has fifty members and twenty-two have now been chosen. To date there are five newcomers, while two members of the 1940 Council suffered defeat Monday.

The remaining twenty-eight members will be chosen on Jan. 1, when polling takes place in most of the urban areas.

HOME PLOWING BANQUET

Despite very wintry conditions, the Junior Farmers' Home Plowing Competition banquet enjoyed a good measure of success on Tuesday evening of last week when the Junior plowmen, their parents and friends assembled in the Vaughan Township Hall at Vellore for a very excellent supper provided by the Vellore Junior Women's Institute.

Earl Empringham, President of the County Junior Farmers which sponsored the competition and banquet, complimented the girls and after a toast to His Majesty, the King, a short programme was presented. Misses Alma Kerr and Ola Fagan sang two delightful duets, accompanied by Miss Margaret Watson of Kleinburg. Miss Watson also gave a piano solo.

A feature this year was a description of the Dunkirk evacuation seen by one who took part in the episode. Sgt. P. F. Nagel, now stationed at Newmarket Training Camp, gave a first-hand review of the near-catastrophe. Needless to say, he was followed throughout his talk with much interest. Sgt. Nagel was introduced by Lieutenant Woods, also of the Newmarket Camp.

Interspersed in the above programme was the presentation of prizes to the winners, names of whom follow below. The Junior Farmers are to be complimented for the leadership in staging such a competition.

Class 1.—1st Russell Watson, Woodbridge; 2nd Roy Smith, Aurora; 3rd Dean McKean, Scarborough; 4th James Clark, Gormley.

Class 2.—1st Bert Tapscott, Milliken.

Class 3.—1st Jack Macklin, Agincourt; 2nd Leslie Smith, Gormley.

Class 4.—1st Norman Tapscott, Milliken; 2nd Robt. Timbers, Stouffville; 3rd Carman Tapscott, Milliken; 4th Allen Wells, Stouffville.

Class 5.—1st Roy Richards, King; 2nd Alan Watson, Woodbridge; 3rd Norman Tyndall, Richmond Hill; 4th Leonard Jarvis, Agincourt.

Class 6.—1st Bruce Keffer, Maple; 2nd Aubrey Marwood, Woodbridge; 3rd Betty Brown, Unionville; 4th Orville Usher, Agincourt.

T. W. HUNTLEY DIES
IN 78TH YEAR

The death of Mr. Thomas Huntley following a two weeks' illness from pneumonia and a heart attack, occurred at the York County Hospital, Newmarket, on the afternoon of Friday, November 22nd.

For nearly seventy-seven years Mr. Huntley lived on the farm on the Base Line, Sutton West, where he was born. His parents were the late Thomas William Huntley and Mary Baker Huntley. To this home he brought his dearly loved bride, Martha Jane Sennett on November 4, 1885, and they lived there until her death, March 15, 1938.

Their two sons Harlan and Bernard are living on the home farms. There are six grandchildren also surviving. All his brothers and sisters preceded him.

His life was devoted to the improvement of the farms and of the beauties of the Lake Shore. To the improvement of the Community through the work of the Council and the Bethel Church.

To the work of the church Mr. and Mrs. Huntley dedicated their lives. For fifty consecutive years Mr. Huntley was Superintendent of Bethel Sunday School and for many years was teacher of the Adult Bible Class. The beneficent and benevolent influence of that home has permeated the lives of all who were privileged to share its hospitality. The many beautiful floral tributes testified to this.

The funeral service was conducted at his home by the Rev. T. V. Hart, assisted by Miss Miriam Collins, the Bethel Student Minister, and by the Rev. Gordon Lapp of Keswick. Interment was made in the Huntley plot in Queensville Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Joel King, Robert Cooper, Harold Winch, Angus Cameron, Frank Williamson and Chesley Cryderman.

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS

O. ct. 26, 1940.

B-66794,
Pte. A. G. McDonald,
Royal Reg't of Canada,
"Z" Force, C.A.S.F.,
Base Post Office, Canada.

Dear Sid,—
This will be a very short letter as I am rather rushed for time. It is 9.30 p.m. now and I still have another letter to write before "Last Post."

Will you please convey to the members of the Newmarket Veterans Assoc., my heartfelt thanks and appreciation for their box. I received it yesterday in perfect condition. You certainly seem to understand just what a soldier likes to get. The canned meat was delicious, a change from mutton. I guess you can imagine how I felt when I saw the can of butter. What a pleasant change from margarine.

We had a church parade in town to-day, and I wish you could have seen it. I'm sure you would have been proud of the showing we made. All the boys were "right on their toes."

Well time is flying, so I had better close for now. Remember the lads haven't much chance right now, but the time will come when we will justify your faith in us. We will certainly try and maintain the high standard set by the men of the last war.

Here's hoping your association has continued success in your undertakings. Many thanks again for your grand parcel.

P.S.—I don't see a great deal of the other Newmarket lads, but they are all in good health and good spirits.

Yours sincerely,
Pte. A. G. McDonald.

Dear Sirs,—
Just a line to thank you for the cigarettes you sent. It gives me great pleasure to know that you think of the boys that are away from home, and I am sure the other boys in the Army appreciate the efforts you are putting forth to help make it easier for us and to win this war.

Thanking you again,
I am sincerely yours,
R. W. Blencowe,

DIES IN HIS CHAIR
WITH BOOK IN HAND

Slumped over in his easy chair, with a book, which he apparently had been reading, on his lap, Alfred M. Clarke, retired C.N.R. station agent, was found dead by his wife Saturday night at Aurora.

He is believed to have suffered a seizure after driving her down to the railway station, where she boarded a train for a trip to Orillia that morning. Mr. Clarke had been in poor health for the past few months.

He was a keen reader, being particularly interested in books pertaining to travel. He had been station agent at Aurora for 17 years. He had been retired for the past few months.

He was a member of the Aurora United Church. Surviving are his wife, one daughter, Vera, of Toronto, and one son, Joseph, at the training camp in Newmarket.

SON OF ELMER DAVIS SUC-
CUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

James W. Davis of Kingston died suddenly in Toronto Saturday, in his 31st year. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of Kingston. A graduate in commerce of Queen's University, where he was a leader in sports and in student government, he was keenly interested in boys' work. Besides his parents, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. C. H. Lewis.

The funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon from A. W. Miles' chapel, St. Clair Avenue West, with interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

MR. & MRS. JOHN STUFFLES
TO CELEBRATE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

On Tuesday next, December 10, Mr. and Mrs. John Stuffles of Prospect street, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary. John Stuffles and Emma Elizabeth Huntley were married on Prospect street, across from where they now reside, by the Rev. Hill of the Christian Church. For 19 years they farmed on the 5th of East Gwillimbury, moving to town 31 years ago.

Mr. Stuffles worked at the Office Specialty until two years ago, when ill health forced him to retire. Mrs. Stuffles is enjoying the best of health, but John is confined to the house in failing health.

The Stuffles have one son, Alfred, and two grandchildren, residents of town. The Express-Herald, on behalf of its readers, extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

MOST OF "CLINK" TERM
SERVED IN HOSPITAL; CASE
MAY GO TO MILITARY COURT

There was no disposition Saturday of the case of William Hansler, Newmarket youth who, through refusing to wear the King's uniform at Newmarket Military Camp, was sentenced to seven days' confinement by his commanding officer, Lt.-Colonel R. B. Harkness.

Hansler reported at the camp on Nov. 22 with 1,000 other trainees, but refused to don his uniform when ordered to do so because, he said, it was against his Christian beliefs. He and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hansler, and five of his seven brothers, were members of the outlawed Jehovah's Witnesses, and their belief is that they owe allegiance to no other king but the Almighty.

Young Hansler was sent to Christie Street Hospital last Sunday, suffering from eczema, and he was expected back in camp on Monday. His seven days C.B. expired yesterday, and had he returned and still refused to wear uniform, he would have had to appear before his commanding officer again for further disposition.

While the officers consider that Hansler is sincere in his beliefs, as far as they are concerned it is just a matter of refusing to obey an order, and such demeanor is punishable by the C.O. It is possible that the case will come before a higher court.

PARENTS APPROVE

The actions of Hansler have the entire approval of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hansler of Newmarket. They pointed out when interviewed by The Telegram Friday, that they loved their country and the King and Queen as much as anyone.

MAIL FOR SOLDIERS
OVERSEAS

During the week ending November 23, some 162,120 letters, 60,640 parcels and 324 bags of news were handled in the Base Post Office, Canada, for despatch to overseas troops.

MOVING TO ST. THOMAS
Mrs. Ronald Patstone and son Roger, are moving to St. Thomas where her husband is stationed with the R.C.A.F.

"Thou shalt not kill," Mr. Hansler quoted from the Commandments. "And that is sufficient justification for our attitude."

The father also stated emphatically, that the only justification he would have for killing a man would be if he attacked him or anything that was his. "If I kill such a person who attacks me, then his blood will be upon his own head," Mr. Hansler said.

But when asked if that would also mean that he would fight if the Hun attacked his country, he said no.

"How is it possible to pray to God to help us when all the world is wicked?" he asked. "God has nothing to do with the contending parties who are killing one another by thousands."

Came From Holland
Mr. Hansler and his wife, who came from Holland 27 years ago, said that if a person believed it is right to fight for their beliefs then they would be cowardly not to don uniform and do so.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansler have seven sons and a daughter. With the exception of the two eldest sons all would refuse to don uniforms or to salute the flag. They quoted the golden rule of Daniel's day as being condemned by Christ and they regard the salute of the flag as a similar gesture. "Forced patriotism," they called it.

They were definitely sure that Hitler and Mussolini, as well as Japan's leader, were agents of Satan, but none of them was Satan, and only Christ could destroy him. Therefore, all these wars were futile, as they did nothing to remove the real evil, Satan, they reasoned.

JAMES CLOSS PASSES IN HIS
38TH YEAR

On Sunday, Nov. 24th, James Closs passed away at his home, Yonge Street, in his 38th year after an illness of some months. He was the second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Closs, Mosley St. Mr. Closs was born at Maybole, Ayrshire, Scotland, and came to Aurora with his parents twenty-eight years ago. He attended the Aurora Public School and worked in Aurora ten years prior to taking up farming in Whitelchurch. He returned to town nine years later and has since been employed at the Aurora Flour and Feed Mills. Jim was interested in hockey and also was a piper having received his training with Murdoch MacDonald of Toronto. He was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

The funeral service which was conducted by Rev. Dr. Glen and Mr. Maxwell, was held from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Closs, Mosley Street on Tuesday afternoon. Interment took place in Aurora cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, formerly Katherine Kane and infant son, also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Closs; two sisters, Mrs. William Summers and Mrs. J. McGhee and three brothers, John Andrew and Joseph, all of Aurora.

“NEVER AGAIN” VOWS BABB
DEFEATED AS COUNCILLOR

“Never again,” said Harry T. Babb, when he learned that he had been beaten in his attempt to secure a second term as councillor in North Gwillimbury.

Stormy petrel of all the council meetings this year, Babb blamed the strong heavy farm vote for his defeat. He also blamed severe weather conditions as he had counted on a heavy city vote from those who own cottages in the Lake Simcoe area.

Babb, who succeeded in getting on council in his first attempt, in December, 1939, had been bucked, he said, at every turn by this year's council, who refused to support any of his resolutions. Most notable among these was one for a change in the police set-up in the township.

Babb reiterated that he would forego another essay into municipal politics.

He said that he had no quarrel to pick with any person over his defeat. He stated that he was fearful of victory when the weather became stormy. “The farmers just stuck together, that's all,” he added. He took four bus loads of city folks to Keswick to vote, but they were not enough to swing the vote his way.

Babb finished 155 votes behind the last man, who was Charles Graham, making his first attempt in any election. For a time Graham was heading the polls, but as the count mounted John Smith, an old councillor, took command and failed to relinquish it. Smith finished with 548 votes, while John Nelson, the second councillor, received 539.

The other surprise came with the defeat of this year's reeve, John Hopkins. Hopkins was defeated by Ross McMillan, making his first try at the reeveship, who headed him by 217 votes. McMillan was deputy-reeve of North Gwillimbury in 1939, being defeated by Harold Glover, who this year was acclaimed.

According to Clerk Fred Peel the vote was very good considering the stormy weather. It snowed almost all day with huge drifts blocking many of the roads.

Weddings

ALLISON—BARKER
A pretty wedding took place on Saturday, Nov. 23, at four o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Barker of Sharon, when their only daughter, Emily Grace, became the bride of Ronald I. Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Allison of Mount Albert. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Shannon of Hope United Church.

The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father to the strains of the wedding music, played by Miss Jane Sugden of Toronto.

The bride looked charming in a floor-length gown of pale blue sheer, with silver shoes. Her bridal veil was caught by orange blossoms. She wore the gift of the groom, a string of pearls, and carried sweetheart roses.

The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Marie Barker, wearing a floor-length gown of coral taffeta, with a corsage of talisman roses. The groom was attended by his brother, George Allison.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Basil Sugden of Toronto sang “Because.”

At a buffet luncheon served following the ceremony, the bride's mother received wearing a gown of blue French crepe, with a corsage of dark red roses. The groom's mother, who also received, wore a Copenhagen blue crepe dress with a corsage of American beauty roses.

For travelling the bride wore a green crepe dress, black coat with green accessories. Mid best wishes and showers of confetti, the happy couple left on a motor trip to parts unknown.

TWO-MONTH JAIL
TERM FOR SELL-ING LIQUOR

Nesbitt stated that he was a married man with three children. He works for the Aurora Dogging Company. “I have a dog for sale and my wife told me there were some men around in the afternoon and were coming back again that night,” he continued. “Two men came to call for me to go out, and we had a drink of beer and I wanted to wait to see if the men about the dog were coming back. My wife had gone to the show. A knock came to the door and these two men said a veterinary had sent them there, so I thought they were the fellows to buy the dog. I said I was just going away, and would they have some beer. A tap came on the door and Martindale came in. I never had any money for the beer because I never sold any beer. I gave it to them. They looked my money over.”

Alvin Paddington said that he was sitting in the kitchen when these men walked in and didn't see any money given to Nesbitt.

William Trulove stated that he was facing the stove and turned around when the boys came in. He thought he recognized one of the boys and asked if he came from a certain part of the city. The money transaction might have taken place but he didn't see it.

“I accept the evidence of Constables Wallace and Myers as to what took place,” ruled His Worship. “I disbelieve the evidence of Nesbitt.”

W. E. Yake of Aurora, charged by Ira Scales of Aurora with fraud, was remanded one week.

Lindsay Obee of Aurora, charged by Constable Ferguson with careless driving, was fined $10, and $4.60 costs or 10 days, and a recommendation made that accused be given a driving test.

G. O. Fleming of Toronto testified that he was driving below Aurora and a car in front of him driving on the shoulder of the road turned to the left as if to make a U turn. The rear end of Fleming's car caught the front end of accused's car. “His car was almost at a right angle,” continued Fleming. “It is a four-laned highway at this point and Obee gave no signal at all. I blew my horn at the first sign of anything. Driving conditions were good.”

Constable Ferguson testified that the impact took place right in the centre of the road. The highway is forty feet wide at this point. Obee stated that he had let a car pass him and didn't see a second car coming.

“I stopped on the right hand shoulder and didn't see any more cars coming and started to make a turn when this gentleman blew his horn,” said accused.

“Didn't you know you had to get into the centre lane before you make a left hand turn?” asked His Worship.

Fred LaBounta of Newmarket, charged by Constable Sloss with having no operator's license, was fined $10 and costs, or 10 days.

J. L. Proulx of Montreal, charged by Constable Hayward with failing to turn out, was fined $5 and costs.

H. E. Whyte of Toronto, charged with speeding by Constable Ferguson, was fined $10 and costs.

council, outlined the correct procedure for the election of officers.

Programme planning was discussed by Mrs. Norman Jones, convener. Amongst many things she stressed the advisability of being mindful of educational value when arranging any programme.

With Mrs. W. Epworth at the piano, and with Mrs. Adams, music convener, Toronto leading the singing, community singing was much enjoyed.

The provincial president, Mrs. Silcox, gave a splendid address dealing mainly with the growth, development, accomplishments of the Provincial Federation of Home and School Associations, and of the value of an active Home and School Association in any community.

At the conclusion of her address, she extended thanks to the Board of Education of the high school, and to all those who so ably arranged for the meeting and to all those who took part in it.

Refreshments were served, proceeds to be used for the local Home and School Association.

BRITISH-ISRAEL

Last Sunday afternoon in the Strand Theatre, Rev. Eric de Penlington of Toronto, gave a specially interesting address entitled “Hitler's Hidden Backers,” but for lack of time was not able to say all he wished. The heavy snow made driving very hazardous, and he had been forced into the ditch near Willowdale to avoid a collision, and this accounted for his late arrival.

He promised to come back some week-night evening and give a further talk on the subject in the usual place of meeting, the Presbyterian Church.

KIWANIS ENTERTAIN

FARM BOYS

On November 20 at their weekly Monday luncheon, the Toronto Downtown Kiwanis Club were hosts to a large group of young men from York County, representing the Boys' Calf and Grain Clubs and the Unionville J. F. Home Improvement competition.

This was the climax to a programme of agricultural education sponsored by the Kiwanis Club and participated in by the Junior Farmers to the fullest extent. This type of hand-in-hand co-operation is to be encouraged with a closer contact between the city and farmer as an ultimate goal.

After the luncheon, a feast in itself, the presentation of prizes was an interesting item, especially for the Juniors. The scholarship winners from the Clubs, announced last week, were assured that their cheques would be honored at the Short Course in Agriculture at the O.A.C. this winter. The winners in the Home Improvement Contest also received their prizes, and some had their pictures taken. A well-deserved vote of thanks was extended to the Kiwanis Club by Jack Wauchope of Schomberg and seconded by Chas. Watson of Todmorden.

The guest speaker of the day was W. R. Reek, Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario, who gave a very inspirational address, stressing a need for closer co-operation between capital and labor, more like the example of the Kiwanis Club and the farmers of York County. Mr. Reek's address was one of wisdom, backed by long experience gained in agricultural problems.

In the afternoon, a tour was organized, again by the Kiwanians, to show the guests through the plant of Canada Packers. Here the Juniors saw at first hand, the processing of their hogs and cattle. All were convinced that the grading of hogs by rail grade was the fairest way to all concerned and also that more attention should be paid to feed, weight, and marketing conditions of livestock before they reach the packing house.

During the course of the day's programme, the Kiwanians extended a hearty vote of thanks to Agricultural Representative W. M. Cockburn, for his untiring efforts in working out the year's

All are invited to the Keswick United Church Sunday School concert on Friday evening, Dec. 20th. The teachers and pupils of the church are preparing an excellent and entertaining programme.

On Sunday, December 1st, at the morning service of the United Church, the Junior Choir assisted the Senior Choir by singing a very sweet and well-rendered Christmas carol. The Junior Choir were gowned for the first time in white surplices made by the women of the church.

The Lakeside Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. E. Shortreed on Wednesday afternoon, November 27th. A most enjoyable programme was enjoyed. Mrs. Roy Pollock, the president, presided over the business meeting. Miss Eva Gilroy led the members in the singing of two Christmas carols. Mrs. Gordon Lapp told in a way that carried her listeners, a story about the giving of a Christmas present, a red glass bowl, by a family of poor children to their mother, who worked hard to support them. Mrs. John King gave a splendid paper dealing with the need of vitamins in the diet, especially the Vitamin B.1. Miss Eva Gilroy, in her report from the Central Ontario convention, emphasized the need of Vitamin B.1 in white bread.

This vitamin can be added to white bread with very small outlay by any bakery. The report of the other delegates to the convention will be given at the next meeting.

On Saturday evening, November 30th, the Keswick Branch of the Canadian Red Cross met in Keswick Public Schoolhouse and agreed to discontinue this organization and to become a part of the North Gwillimbury Red Cross Branch. A local work unit of the North Gwillimbury Red Cross was then formed at Keswick. The following officers were appointed: Mrs. Bains, Chairman of the Red Cross Sewing; Mrs. McGenerty, Chairman of the Red Cross Knitting.

All women are urgently asked to attend the Red Cross work meetings held every Tuesday afternoon in the Sunday School room of the United Church. Work begins at 2 o'clock standard time.

The Women's Missionary Society of the United Church will meet on Thursday afternoon, Dec. 12th. The election of officers for the society of the year 1941 will be held. All members and any others who wish to contribute to Paymaster Midshipman Clifford Willis, Serving on British Man-o-War, Gives Vivid Picture of Bombardment of Libyan Port in Letter Home—Praises Cooperation of Royal Air Force.

A vivid description of the bombardment of the Port of Bardia, an Italian possession on the North African Coast, is contained in a letter written home by Paymaster Midshipman Clifford Willis, Royal Canadian Navy, a Sherbrooke boy who is serving on a British man-o-war patrolling the High Seas helping Britannia rule the waves.

Clifford is a nephew of Mrs. Wilfred Travis, Mrs. Rhoda Watson and Charles Willis of town. When the call for battle stations was sounded the sun had not risen and the clouds were overhanging. Libya was not in sight, but during the next few minutes everyone was tense, the letter relates.

"We expected to be shelled by shore batteries and bombed from the air, and, in addition, to see a few tin fish heading for us. We were all quite certain that our aircraft would never come back."

"As I arrived on the catapult deck one aircraft was on the catapult warming up prior to being shot off. The waves were dashing against the side, throwing spray over the deck. The engines were raced, the flag was held up, the pilot signalled the ready, down came the hand flag—and zoom, she was off."

As the ship moved in, the high, rocky, barren coast came into view. "The destroyers were screening us methodically against submarines. Our speed was reduced, guns were being trained and loaded, ready for the zero hour, 0700. We could see Bardia—we were so close."

Describing the actual firing, the letter continues, "Actually the firing was opened at 16,500 (yards) and ended at 10,000. The sun was just rising behind us and the clouds were clearing. 'A' and 'B' took the range and bang, bang, 15" projectiles (bricks) started heading towards our friends, the Italians. We could hear them whistling through the air, and saw the flash of the explosive and then clouds of dust."

The British sailors were amazed when there was no heavy answering fire from shore. "I believe we surprised them completely—and what a surprise with 15 inch bricks and 6 inch pills whistling in on the port. The Italians estimated a total of 300 rounds and they weren't bragging."

Midshipman Willis states that the noise and clouds of brownish smoke and flame that a 15 inch gun belches forth defies description, but that he and his mates thoroughly enjoyed it all—they were in a position to enjoy it.

"When the Commander-in-Charge felt his objective had been attained we altered course away from land towards our base. It was not until some time after that a single shore battery opened fire. When it did we were out of range and watched the shells explode harmlessly in the sea."

"A few minutes later there was an air raid alarm as Italian planes were sighted, but the R.A.F. fighters protecting us came out of the sun and chased them away. We saw three fall into the sea. We were thankful for the R.A.F. during the return trip—had they not been there the spaghetti eaters would have made it definitely very hot."

Glad to say we are all very cheerful over here, and beginning to feel that we have really turned the corner at last. It is marvellous how the people in London are standing up to the life they are having to live now, and everyone who visits London from the Provinces or meets London people are amazed at the calm and even humorous determination with which they are talking and taking all that comes. We here in the Midlands hardly as yet realize there is a War on, as life is fairly normal, there is plenty of food, and in fact if it were not for certain restrictions and what we hear on the wireless or read in the newspapers we should wonder whether it were true that such a grim War really was taking place.

My brother has asked me to send his very kindest regards to you, and we hope you are keeping in very good health and that restrictions on your business will not prove to be as great in the future as they must be at the moment.

With kindest regards,
Yours faithfully,
for EATOUGH'S LIMITED,
Sgd. J. Eatoughs.

The Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. R. Scott on Wednesday afternoon, December 11th. Roll Call—Exchange of Christmas Gifts, not to exceed 15c; Topic—A Christmas Story, by Mrs. J. Wright; Report of the Toronto Convention—Mrs. Geo. Preston and Mrs. Hennessey. Gift shower for Children's Shelter.

Hosesses—Mrs. E. Foster and Mrs. G. Stephenson.

Mrs. R. Scott spent a few days in the city last week. Mr. and Mrs. Max Fines and family are moving to Aurora. There was a farewell party at the schoolhouse for them last Thursday evening. Mr. Fines has been a faithful caretaker of our school for the last ten years and we are sorry to lose them from the community.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Willis motored to the 5th Line of King Township last Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Willis visited the Kettleby W. L. at the home of Mrs. Ball.

A number of cars were in difficulty on the Aurora road last Saturday night, and finally turned around and went home via Newmarket. "The long way around is the safest way home."

Mrs. David Ellis of Waterloo, visited Mrs. Harry Sproston on Sunday. Mr. Sproston is nursing a broken bone in his wrist, caused by a fall in getting down from his new chicken-house roof. We hope it will soon be mended.

Mr. Ransom has taken over the caretaker's work at the school.

No church here yesterday on account of the storm. A good attendance is hoped for next Sunday. Sunday school at 2 p.m. Church service 3 p.m.

NEWS FROM KING CITY AND DISTRICT

The premature wintry weather has at least convinced us that any repeated versions of Indian summer cannot be hoped for. King township roads were filled with snow on Sunday, highway 27 being the only road opened by the plow. The two township plows were not ready for use until Sunday night and Monday morning Bill Farren of Snowball had plenty of rescue work for cars en route from Aurora to Kettleby on Saturday evening. Sunday is preachers' day and no one envied them their drives. Rev. Mr. Worrall was more than an hour getting to St. John's Church, Oak Ridges, from King City. At that he was half an hour late and had to practically turn around in order to get back to All Saints', in time for the service.

The 103rd anniversary service of St. Andrew's, Strathroy, was postponed. Rev. Mr. Burch left King on Saturday and supplied in the pulpits of the intended visiting ministers, Rev. Mr. Hood, and Rev. Mr. Smith of Toronto. Neither of the Toronto ministers left the city on the advice of the local congregation.

Rev. Mr. Davis was unable to reach Teston, but got to Lasky in the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Galloway did not get to Kettleby in the morning, but preached at Pottageville and King. Rev. W. J. Burton of Kettleby reached Snowball and Pottageville, and Nobleton congregations were quite small for the most part, and some Sunday schools combined with the church service.

The school buses went their route on Monday morning.

The bazaar held by the W.A. of King United Church last week was a decided success, $70 being realized. The display and quality of articles was very fine and useful, and the ladies enjoyed the undertaking, feeling well repaid for their work.

While in poor health for some time, the death of Mr. Alfred Clarke, former station agent at Aurora, came very suddenly on Saturday, Nov. 30. Mrs. Clarke had spent the day at Orillia, and on returning on the evening train as she walked into the house and turned on the light, she found her husband sitting in a chair near the register, with an open book in his lap, but dead. His passing apparently had been very quiet, but nevertheless the shock is very great for his wife and two children, Vera of Toronto, and Joe at present in training camp, Newmarket. The funeral was held from Aurora, with interment in King City cemetery.

Mr. Clarke was stationed at King for more than five years, going to Aurora eighteen years ago. He was of quiet disposition, but of kindly nature and highly respected. They made many lasting friendships in King and the sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Clarke and children in their bereavement. Many homes have been saddened recently, and the Christmas tide will not be easy for them.

Miss W. L. Kennedy returned to Toronto after spending a couple of weeks with Mrs. Walter Rolling.

Pte. Kenneth Scott was up from Niagara last week. Ptes. Leslie Kerr and Jack Ball are expected home on leave from Quebec on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Charles Davis of Schomberg was 83 years old on Saturday, Nov. 30, which was also her wedding day as Mary Morris of Bradford. She became the bride of the late Charles Davis, celebrating their 64th wedding anniversary. Mr. Davis was the delicate member of a family of 12. He outlived them all, reaching the age of 96.

Mrs. Davis is in poor health at present, but enjoys a brief visit from her neighbours and friends. Always being so active, her present weakness is a little hard for her to understand. We wish her better health and more birthdays.

Miss Roberta Gillies of Toronto spent the weekend with Miss Elizabeth McClure, expecting to be present at Strange Presbyterian anniversary on Sunday.

St. Stephen's Anglican church, Maple, will celebrate its 102nd anniversary on Sunday, Dec. 8.

On Tuesday, Dec. 10, King City Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. S. Stone, Sr. The motto will be "Peace and Goodwill and Plenty." Christmas games and mirth.

The roll call, a favourite hot supper dish; Mrs. F. Armstrong will take the topic on "Community Activities and Relief." Mrs. Wilson, a spelling match, button-hole and fancy stitching contest, and a demonstration of home-made Christmas gifts will fill out a well ordered program. Busy as the Christmas season is, members are asked to attend.

Mrs. Ralph Willis of Gormley addressed Kettleby W.I. recently on the plan of Farm Federation.

Schomberg plan a social campaign for British War Victims Fund, on Dec. 4. Bridge and euchre is being held at various homes similar to the $100 social night held last year for Finnish relief. We understand that Douglas Fry, principal of Tottenham public school, will go to Weston after Christmas. H. H. Sawdon, teacher of S.S. 15, Lloydton, will replace Mr. Fry at Tottenham.

All Saint's Sunday school recently reorganized, is doing nicely with a good attendance. The teachers are Miss Jarvis, Betty Walker, Mrs. Rawlings, with Louise Kelley as secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Jno. Frank of Toronto will be the evening preacher at St. Stephens' 102nd anniversary, Maple, on Dec. 8.

The annual meeting and election of officers of Eversley Presbyterian W.A., was held last week. President, Mrs. Duncan Ross; first vice, Mrs. A. Jones; 2nd vice, Mrs. A. Bovair; secretary, Mrs. H. Cairns; treasurer, Mrs. W. Rolling; pianist, Ethel A. B. Wells; sewing comm., Mrs. Ferguson; flower convener, Mrs. Walsh; Mrs. Gellatly.

Eversley Christmas concert, Dec. 12; King United, Dec. 17; Kinghorn, Dec. 18; Temperanceville, Dec. 19; Lasky, Dec. 20.

STRUDWICK—RUMBLE
The Baptist parsonage at King was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 30, when Miss Dorothy Mae Rumble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rumble of Vaughan, township, became the bride of William Edward Strudwick of Concord. Rev. J. Galloway officiated. The bride's dress was of rose crepe with blue accessories; a corsage of pink carnations completing a most harmonious bridal attire. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Rumble, wearing blue, a dress of Queen's blue with matching accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Mr. R. Howard Broome of Concord acted as groomsmen. Immediately after the wedding supper at the home of the bride's parents, the newlyweds left, intending to spend a few days in and around Toronto, returning this week to take up residence at Concord.

On the Wednesday evening previous to her marriage, the bride was guest of honour at a very happy event held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kinnee. On that occasion she was made recipient of some very useful household utensils. These were presented by her friends of the Baptist church of which she is a member.

PLEASANTVILLE

News and Views of People and Things by Isabel Inglis Colville
People

On the afternoon of Wednesday, December 11, the Pine Orchard Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Penrose. Christmas carols will add their joyous note to the pleasure of the afternoon. Roll call, "What Impressed Me Most in their Majesties' Visit." Speaker, Mr. Vail of Newmarket. Contest, convener, Miss Doris Penrose. Current events, taken by Mrs. Harper.

Mrs. Elmer Starr, Mr. Frances and Master Stuart Starr spent Saturday in Toronto. Mrs. Starr attended a Friends' Conference, taking place in the city at this time.

Don't forget the Bogartown school's concert, which is scheduled for the evening of Thursday, December 19. A lovely little Christmas cantata will show the children's historic and musical ability.

Miss Frances Stickwood left on Saturday to join other winners of the Junior Farmer prizes—the trip to Chicago. It will be a fine trip and Miss Stickwood is well fitted by her club and project work to take full advantage of her opportunities, and just as important—give out, on her return, an adequate resumé of her experiences.

Miss Doris Penrose, Mr. Ken. Wagge and Mr. Albert Ridley were supper guests on Sunday night at the home of Mr. Leslie Harper.

Mrs. Ewart spent Saturday in Toronto.

Mrs. Gordon McClure, Miss McQueen and Miss Irma Taylor took tea with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Toole on Thursday evening.

Mr. Orley McClure of the Newmarket camp was a supper guest on Saturday evening of his mother, Mrs. Gordon McClure.

Miss Irma Taylor spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Toole, and Reeve Toole, leaving on Saturday to take a position in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Harper weekendened with Mrs. West in Toronto.

Mr. Kenneth Wagge left our community the first of the week to take up residence for himself in Uxbridge.

Is 15 degrees below zero a record for the first of December? It feels like one anyway.

Shopping Early

Just so many days to go to Christmas day, we all should know, and do your Christmas shopping too, is cried from every point at you. And every year you still declare that it is only just and fair, that you should to the shops repair, and choose your gifts in pleasant peace, and from all worry feel release, nor think you're adding to the worries of clerk's who face last-minute flurries, when every shopper thinks that he, should instantly attended be.

This year, as in the years gone by, I'm making just another try, at getting things done well before old Santa Claus knocks at the door. One thing this year to me's not new, each year I always lose the clue, to where my address book can be, and time is lost as you can see, as throwing things to left and right, my desk becomes a sorrier sight; then even it has been before, though my more tidy family thought I had touched the high for me! But there are those to whom this mess, is not a case of dire distress—my cats leap, whirl, and dive about, and turn those papers inside out. They climb my back and reach my head, while I sit there in mounting dread, that they a firmer grip may keep in preparation for a leap.

I yell with pain and hope for help, and at my last despairing yell, friend husband comes to find the cause and rescue me kittens' claws. But I, with truth can really say, I've made some small, but real headway, in getting somewhat more, ahead, than I have been before. So, though to boast I do not dare, for there is much to still prepare, yet, I can say, though far from done, I've much more than just well begun. Of further progress, I next time, will tell you in my weekly rhyme.

KESWICK

The sympathy of the community is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Carson Pollock and family in the sad loss of their only young son, John who passed away at the Sick Children's Hospital last Wednesday after a brief illness. The funeral was held in the United Church on Saturday afternoon which was largely attended. Rev. Lapp conducted the service with interment at Queensville.

AN OVERSEAS BROADCAST

By Mrs. Arthur Evans
At the request of the editor, I am writing my impressions of the overseas broadcast which originated in CFRB studio Tuesday. Anyone who listened in Tuesday morning at 10.30 to the popular programme conducted by Mrs. Aitken, must certainly have had an earful, for the broadcast extended to three-quarters of an hour before all the one hundred and fifty, whose son's or husband's names were drawn from all those sent in following her broadcast last Thursday, had been accommodated.

This time I am not writing about hearing a broadcast, but, luckily, as one who participated in it. You see, Mrs. Aitken said that anyone who had a relative overseas might send in his name, and if it were drawn, the sender would have the privilege of broadcasting a twelve-word message to the one whose name was drawn over CFRB the following Tuesday morning. (That was this morning!) Five from Newmarket had that delightful privilege. Miss Slater, Millard Ave., who sent a message to her brother. Mrs. Norman Macleod to her husband, Mrs. Henry Clark to her son, Verne, Mrs. Gordon Thompson to her husband, and myself to my son, Fred, now in England, lately arrived there after six months in Iceland, together with the five other Newmarket boys in the same regiment, The Royal Regiment of Canada.

Mrs. Aitken suggested that we make the message of a more personal nature than just a Christmas greeting—and we had great fun confining it to twelve words, you may be sure. We were to arrive at 9.45, so that she could sort of regiment us, and explain the procedure before we went on the air. We were to sing a verse of "Good King Wenceslass" at the start, and a verse of "Auld Lang Syne" as a finish, and in between we had to form in a long line, and as she or her announcer taking turns called out our names in the order in which we came, we had all been allotted to our place according to the number on our card, we waited for the soldier's name as we stood in front of the "mike," and delivered our message.

Many and varied were the messages sent over the air. The Scottish mother who has five sons overseas, was accorded a burst of applause, and one who put her message into rhyme called forth a good laugh, and the same to me also, when after I'd sent my message, I laughed and said, "We had it 10 degrees below zero this morning up in Newmarket."

One little chap was held up by his mother to say, "Hello, daddy," and he added, "Thanks for the shin-plaster." (What we call a 25c bill). Several little ones sent a message with that of their mother, and I'm sure it would mean joy to the one who received it.

I wonder can I recall the rhyme that made us all laugh. It went something like this! "In your last letter you asked for 'dough'."

I'll send it along in a day or so." It was so unexpected, as well as so cute, that we laughed in delight. But not all were so cheery. Some wives and mothers could hardly speak for emotion, and one broke down completely and sobbed, which upset all the rest of us, as you may well imagine. It would be a sorrow to her afterwards, and a cruel disappointment to the one who failed to receive the message, and I'm afraid a bad worry as well. But the programme was on the air, and had to proceed, so her chance was gone. I do feel sorry about that, and I know that Mrs. Aitken felt badly, but there was nothing to be done about it, of course.

It was a delightful adventure, and one we shall not soon forget! We are all so grateful to Mrs. Aitken and her sponsors, the Tamblin Drug Co., for making it possible. In spite of the fact that it was the coldest Dec. 3 on record, and the roads icy and full of snow, and many sideroads blocked, only one or two failed to arrive to broadcast their message personally. Those who could not come, Mrs. Aitken kindly broadcast their message. They were there from all parts of Ontario, from Kingsville even, the home of Jack Miner and his wild fowl sanctuary, and the lady sitting next me, No. 59 (I was No. 60) came from beyond London, and had come in the night before and stayed at the Ford Hotel over night, so that she should not miss getting to the studio.

Messages went from Oshawa and from Sutton, and from many other distant places, but in spite of the extreme cold sub-zero weather, they were there, smiling and friendly, glad of the privilege accorded us.

I wore my badge of the Royal Regiment, and recognizing it, the two women on my right eagerly sought news of my son, and what company he was in. One had a son in the same company, and the other had a 16-year-old son in the same company, only in the stores. She had a few snap-shots taken in Iceland which I found tremendously interesting, you may be sure.

And now we hope our soldier boys will enjoy the record when it reaches England—it was to

BOYS WRITE HOME FROM OLD COUNTRY

England, Oct. 19, 1940.

Ang West:
Dear Friend,—

Just a line as I have promised to write a lot of people around Newmarket, but time is a hard thing to get in our outfit. Last Tuesday was my first day off since the middle of July, when I had my debarkation leave. I had two Sunday afternoons as well. Our Battalion being an engineering one, comes in for a lot of work. As France quit while we were in mid-ocean, we landed in England on June 21st and went right to work on the defence projects in S.E. England. Our H.Q. is permanent in one place while the Coys. operate from there. We later joined Gen. McNaughton's travelling circus. Our big job is taking over repair work in the bombed armament and aeroplane plants, so we have seen a lot of England and met a lot of fine people. Civilian contractors take over from us if things aren't too hot. Our duty is to stick on the job regardless of air raids, unless they are actually bombing us, which we come in for a lot of times, sometimes 15 out of 24 hours this last while. Just this minute we had to take to our tummys and mother earth as he just dropped five at the edge of our camp, but they were all D.A.'s (delayed action). We don't mind it so much as long as they're in the open, but sometimes they are in a place where they have to be dug up. Our section had one to dig up last Sunday. Interesting, eh? Well, we don't do it any oftener than we can help.

We are still under canvas but hope to be in huts by the first of November. We haven't much recreation or luxury, and our pay isn't worth a d— anymore, the way the things are taxed. Cigarettes are a penny each to get any fit to smoke. Show tickets that we paid sixpence for are now ninepence, and everything the same. While the civilian pay is good and the English army gets sixpence a day to help cover the tax, we get nothing. The Tommies are all billeted in private houses, while we take the tents and the rain, as it is all of two weeks since we had thoroughly dry bedding and all. Our trade or work pay was cut when we left Toronto, and while talked of and such, has not been paid up since. So the seventy shillings a month that we draw hardly keeps us in personal needs and smokes. But we'll still keep thumbs up and show them we can take it. We drew our first reinforcements this week.

Well, Ang, there's a lot I'd like to say that's best not to, so will close hoping you write soon, as mail is always welcome from home when over here. So tell me start this afternoon on its way—for we are all delighted that such a privilege came our way. Each Canadian camp is to have a record for Christmas, and we hope it will also be broadcast over BBC between Christmas and New Years. If so, we who shared in the overseas broadcast will get a chance to hear what you all heard as you listened to Mrs. Aitken's programme over CFRB this morning, Tuesday, Dec. 3.

Recce. Troop, Tor. Scot. Regt. Oct. 17, 1940.

Dear Ang: Greetings and thanks from an appreciative friend. That's the gist of my letter, Ang. I've had a couple of editions of your sheet and I must say I got a real kick out of reading up on the old town. The local weekly seems to say more than all (?) letters I get from my friends. As you may know, I've joined the Med. Recce. Troop (Motorcycle Reconnaissance), and believe me, it's a "good go" as our limey friends say! Lots of action, lots of fun, and, of course, lots of narrow squeaks! Anything to keep from growing old, you know.

So cheerio, Ang, and once again, thanks.

QUEENSVILLE

White Gift Service Dec. 15th.

Christmas is the time of the year when a friendly feeling should prevail. We can do this in many ways, and your correspondent offers just a few suggestions.

We all realize that there are many more unfortunate than ourselves and Christmas to them will be a dreary day if we do not help—even in a small way. On Sunday, December 15th, Queensville United Church will hold their annual White Gift Service. All are invited to attend with their gift, no matter how small. These gifts will be distributed locally. Your co-operation is asked for. Christmas music begins this Sunday at church—you are invited to attend.

Queensville United Church choir will give the Cantata, "His Birthday," on Sunday, Dec. 22nd. Think About Your Mail Driver.

At this busy time, a twenty-three mile drive with horse and cutter, over all kinds of roads, with practically no end of mail, isn't the nicest job one could have. This is what your mailman does every day. You can help him by purchasing your stamps early from him and have all your letters stamped when posted in the mail-box. Don't expect him to pick up your letters with countless coppers on a stormy day. Shovel the road into your mail-box. Official ruling says that the mail-box must be erected so as to be conveniently reached by the carrier without leaving his vehicle.

Above all, be sure and mail early.

Be thoughtful this Christmas.

Grandmother's Meeting. The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilbert Dew on Wednesday, Dec. 11, at 2.30 p.m.

This meeting will be the Grandmother's Meeting, and the convener is Mrs. Chesley Doane. Roll Call—Something Our Grandmothers Missed. Lunch Committee—Mrs. Willard Cole, Mrs. Gordon Cole, and Mrs. S. Graves.

Village Meeting Dec. 20. The annual meeting of the ratepayers of the police village of Queensville will be held on Monday, Dec. 20th, at 7 p.m., at the home of Mr. L. Foster. All interested are requested to be present.

Concert Date Changed.

Queensville United Church Sunday School Christmas entertainment, which was announced last week for Dec. 20, has been changed. This concert will be held next Thursday evening, Dec. 12th. A pageant of the nations will be the main feature of the programme.

Queensville Manse is getting to be a matrimonial bureau. Two weddings were performed there this week. One all the way from Malton Air Port on a stormy night. The low temperature reported

With new electrically heated diving suits, insulated with glass cloth, U.S. Navy divers will be able to descend deeper into the sea, stay down longer and still remain clearer heads than they could before.

Industries are being reminded that protective nightlighting of a plant should be so arranged as to provide definite advantage to the property protected, and to put a saboteur or criminal at a disadvantage.

in Queensville this week was on Tuesday morning—13 below zero. The funeral of the late William McGinerty was held from his late home on Wednesday. Sympathy is extended to the bereaved.
